FLORIDA STATE TRAPSHOOT

Two of TRPC's junior shooters attended the annual Florida State Trapshoot held in Odessa, Florida over the last week in March. Wyatt Gebhart and Jackson Hunter slugged it out with the state's best young shooters. Wyatt was crowned Florida sub-junior (under 15 division) Handicap Champion on Sunday. His score of 77 tied for high honors requiring a 25 bird shootoff to determine the champion. Wyatt smashed 22 targets to best the competition and earned a beautiful crystal trophy for his efforts. He also won several preliminary events on Thursday and Friday's handicap event presented him with a highly regarded 1st place belt buckle. Jackson earned several medallions in his first state competition and is looking forward to next year's competition.

Congratulations!!!!

Wyatt Gebhart

Jackson Hunter

FROM THE DESK OF THE SECRETARY

Evidently the sign in sheet from the January 30, 2022, workday was not centrally located for everyone to sign. If you failed to sign in and that was the only workday you have attended for the 2021 – 2022 year, please drop me an email at secretary@trpc.net so I can award your work credit. The next workday is April 30, 2022, from 8:00 to 10:00am and will be the last workday prior to renewals for the 2022 – 2023 year. No lunch will be served.

The next general membership meeting is on April 13, 2022, at 7:00pm at the range pavilion. Please plan to attend.

TRPC mourns the loss of Jim Norman, past president. Jim was an avid handgunner and active club member. He will be missed.
