January 10, 2024 General Meeting Minutes

- Quorum obtained
- Minutes from October meeting approved by membership
- Vice President – Workday was a general cleanup
 - 300 yard target stands replacement
 - The new perimeter fence line has been completed – total cost came in at $74,000. It was a much needed improvement for safety and security
 - Range H (back side of B Range) improvement project is in full swing – thanks to those 18 members that came out to assist getting it going. Still need to fence off the access from E&F range and install signage
- Treasurer’s report – Even with the expenditure of the perimeter fence, club is in good financial shape. Report approved by membership
- Secretary’s report – club has 424 members. If you are not receiving the electronic newsletter, please email secretary@trpc.net .
- Black Powder Match – 3rd Sunday @ 12:00 – averaging 7 shooters a month
- Steel Challenge – 2nd Saturday match/ 1st Friday practice – averaging 18 shooters
- NRA Match – 4th Saturday – turning targets are installed and working
- Safety violations – We continue to find 223/308/30-06 brass on range A1. This is a blatant violation of TRPC safety rules. Violations of this level will not be tolerated. Please report anything of this nature to the board immediately.
