

TRPC GENERAL RANGE AND CLUB RULES

Revised 10/08/2015

1. Shooting during daylight hours only.
2. Scheduled events take precedence over practice sessions.
3. Do not give your proximity card to anyone.
4. Absolutely no climbing on the side berms or backstops and no damaging any club property.
5. All members are responsible for cleaning up their trash and for generally policing the area where they have been.
6. One Day Member Policy (4/2010 & 10/2015):
 - One Day Members may come to the range an unlimited number of times.
 - One Day Members must pay $10.00 each time they are on club property.
 - The spouse of a TRPC member does not pay the $10.00 fee when accompanying the member to the range.
 - Dependent children, under the age of 18, of a TRPC member do not pay the $10.00 fee when accompanying the member to the range.
 - The $10.00 fee does not apply to TRPC matches or the Youth Program.
 - Participants and observers of a scheduled match or the Youth Program do not pay the $10.00 One Day Member fee.
 - At the conclusion of the match or the Youth Program, all participants and observers must leave TRPC property.
 - All One Day Members must be accompanied and supervised by a TRPC member.
 - A TRPC member may only bring three (3) One Day Members at a time. 01/17/13
 - Spouses and dependent children of TRPC members are included in the 3 one day member's limit. 01/17/13
 - All match participants, observers, and One Day Members must sign a release of liability each time they are on TRPC property.
 - The release must be signed immediately upon entering TRPC property.
7. ALWAYS check before you leave the range to see if you are the last one there. The last one to leave the range on any given day is responsible for making sure the clubhouse is locked and the gate closes.
8. Every member is responsible for range safety. If you observe anyone violating the rules or behaving in an unsafe manner, you are expected to caution the individual and to report flagrant violations to the Board of Directors. Safety is the responsibility of EVERYONE ON THE RANGE.
9. No member, individual or business entity may use the range for shooting commercial purposes. The board must approve non-shooting commercial purposes.
10. All instructors conducting a class for any type of firearms will have, at a minimum, trainer certification from NRA, NROI, NMLRA, Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission (Hunter's Ed) or any agency recognized by the Criminal Justice and Standards Commission.
11. Persons giving informal training to a guest or family member (as encouraged by the TRPC Purpose as given in the Bylaws and by current NRA policy) do not require certification as a trainer. The only two conditions are: 1) The member providing the training must be knowledgeable in the discipline, and 2) There must be no claim that the trainee is earning any official endorsement from any organization.

12. Ranges may be scheduled for events only with prior notification in the newsletter or if approved at a regular General Membership meeting or under direction of the BOD as set out in STANDING RULE 19 (BA#010 03_10/10/11 GMM 10/12/11).
13. Members must wear or visibly display their membership card while on the range.
14. The entrance gate must remain locked at all times.
15. Everyone on TRPC property shall possess a valid, government issued picture identification and present it upon request. (01/09)

ANY VIOLATION OF THESE RULES BY A MEMBER OR THEIR GUEST MAY RESULT IN DISCIPLINARY ACTION
